

Barry Lather has 28 years of experience with a large-scale entertainment from television to arena spectaculars. Barry has conceived, directed, and coordinated the technical production of world tours for such artists as: Usher, Mariah Carey, Rihanna, Miguel, Ciara and the Pussycat Dolls. He has also served as a creative and technical director for TV performances with Trey Songz, Justin Bieber, Usher, Rihanna, and Blake Shelton on the Grammys, American Music Awards, the VMA's, Billboard Awards, BET Awards, and CMA's. Barry worked with John Legend, Robin Thicke, Kelly Clarkson and Jennifer Nettles on the series Duets producing multiple staged performances. He excels at coordinating the production, communicating with all department heads, tech-ing and producing live shows and special TV performances – bringing the creative elements, making the artist shine, and delivering a show on budget is of utmost importance to Barry.

BARRY LATHER MASTER CLASS

February 21st

Intermediate from 7:30-8:30 (ages 10-14)

Advanced from 8:30-9:30 (ages 15 and up)

$20 per dancer master class fee

All dancers are welcome! (If you are in Contemporary from 7:30-8:30 or Hip Hop 6 from 8:30-9:30 you will need to take a make-up class as this will not count as either class).

This is mandatory for Starstruck Elite Company dancers.

