

COLLEGE STANDOUT

DECEMBER 17TH

3:00 - 6:00 PM

MORGAN ST. PIERRE

Morgan St. Pierre is one of the head coaches for the 24-time national champion BYU Cougarettes collegiate dance team, where she directs the dancers in gameday performances, artistic concerts, and collegiate competition.

Throughout her career, Morgan has helped to build numerous high-performing dance programs for young dancers in the Utah area, including the Bingham Minorette Drill program, Hi-Light Dance Academy's competitive program, and currently is on staff at Center Stage Performing Arts Studio in Orem, Utah.

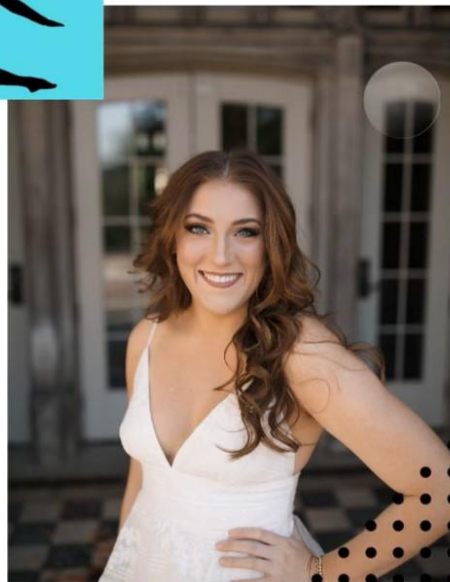

Through middle school and early high school, Morgan lived in Highlands Ranch, Colorado, where she trained at Starstruck Dance Academy and gained her love for competitive dance. After competing on the BYU Cougarettes in college, her love for the program would come full circle and in 2020 be hired on as head Co-Coach. For the last 2 years their team has taken back-to-back double NDA collegiate championships in both hip-hop and open jazz in Division 1A.

SYDNEY SCHRIVER

Sydney Schriver grew up in Knoxville, Tennessee dancing competitively at Revolution dance studio, as well as a nationally ranked high school, Bearden. She continued her education at the University of Tennessee where she was a part of the University of Tennessee dance team.

Sydney graduated in May 2023 with a degree in communication and information as well as two collegiate national championships. Currently Sydney is one of the assistant coaches of the Bearden high school and west valley middle school dance team programs. She is also the recruiting manager for the Tennessee dance team. For the past 5 years she has been an instructor for UDA.

SIGN UP IN YOUR PORTAL TODAY!